3. Why this manual?

- 3.1. In terms of section 51 of the Act, all Private Bodies are required to compile an Information Manual (“PAIA Manual”).
- 3.2. Where a request is made in terms of the Act, the body to whom the request is made is obliged to release the information, subject to applicable legislative and / or regulatory requirements, except where the Act expressly provides that the information may be adopted when requesting information from a public or private body.

- 3.3. The purpose of PAIA is to promote the right of access to information, to foster a culture of transparency and accountability within Cred-it-data by giving the right to information that is required for the exercise or protection of any right and to actively promote a society in which the people of South Africa have effective access to information to enable them to exercise and protect their rights.
- 3.4. To promote effective governance of private bodies, it is necessary to ensure that everyone is empowered and educated to understand their rights in relation to public and private bodies.
- 3.5. Section 9 of the Act recognises that the right to access information cannot be unlimited and should be subject to justifiable limitations, including, but not limited to:
  - 3.5.1. Limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy.
  - 3.5.2. Commercial confidentiality.
  - 3.5.3. Effective, efficient, and good governance.
  - 3.5.4. And in a manner which balances that right with any other rights, including such rights contained in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution.
- 3.6. This Manual complies with the requirements of guide mentioned in section 10 of the PAIA and recognises that upon commencement of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013, that the appointed Information Regulator will be responsible to regulate compliance with the Act and its regulations by private and public bodies. <https://www.sahrc.org.za/index.php/understanding-paia><sup>1</sup>

Note that the accessibility of the records may be subject to the grounds of refusal set out in this PAIA manual. Amongst other, records deemed confidential on the part of a third party, will necessitate permission from the third party concerned, in addition to normal requirements, before Cred-it-data will consider access.

6. Records Available without a *Request to Access

- 6.1. Records of a public nature, typically those disclosed on the Cred-it-data website and in its various annual reports, may be accessed without the need to submit a formal application.
- 6.2. Other non-confidential records, such as statutory records maintained at CIPC, may also be accessed without the need to submit a formal application, however, please note that an appointment to view such records will still have to be made with the Information Officer.

7. Applicable legislation

Section 51(1) (c)

- 7.1. Where applicable to its operations, Cred-it-data also retains records and documents in terms of the legislation described in Appendix 15.2. Unless disclosure is prohibited in terms of legislation, regulations, contractual agreement or otherwise, records that are required to be made available in terms of these acts shall be made available for inspection by interested parties in terms of the requirements and conditions of the Act; the below mentioned legislation and applicable internal policies and procedures, should such interested parties be entitled to such information. A request to access must be done in accordance with the prescriptions of the Act.
- 7.2. It is further recorded that the accessibility of documents and records may be subject to the grounds of refusal set out in this Manual.

8. How do you request access to information?

Section 51(1) (e)

- 8.1. The requester must comply with all the procedural requirements contained within section 53 of PAIA relating to the request for access to a record.
- 8.2. The requester must complete the prescribed Form 1 found in Appendix 16.1, and submit same as well as payment of a request fee and a deposit (if applicable) to the Information Officer or the Deputy Information Officer at the postal or physical address or electronic mail address as noted in Contact Details above.
- 8.3. The prescribed form must be filled in with sufficient information to enable the Information Officer to identify:
- the record or records requested; and
  - the identity of the requester.
- 8.4. The requester should indicate which form of access is required and specify a postal address or email address of the requester in the Republic.
- 8.5. The requester must state that he/she requires the information to exercise or protect a right, and clearly state what the nature of the right is so to be exercised or protected. The requester must clearly specify why the record is necessary to exercise or protect such a right (section 53(2)(d)).

- 8.6. Cred-it-data will process the request within 30 (thirty) days, unless the requester has stated special reasons to the satisfaction of the Information Officer that circumstances dictate that the above time periods not be complied with.
- 8.7. The requester shall be advised whether access is granted or denied in writing. If, in addition, the requester requires the reasons for the decision in any other manner, the requester will be obliged to state which manner and the particulars required.
- 8.8. If a request is made on behalf of another person, then the requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the reasonable satisfaction of the Information Officer (section 53(2)(f)).
- 8.9. If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally.
- 8.10. The requester must pay the prescribed fee before any further processing can take place.
- 8.11. All information as listed in clause 11 herein should be provided and failing which the process will be delayed until the required information is provided. The prescribed time periods will not commence until the requester has furnished all the necessary and required information. The Information Officer shall sever a record, if possible, and grant only access to that portion requested and which is not prohibited from being disclosed.

9. What will it cost in terms of PAIA?

Section 51 (1) (f)

- 9.1.1. The Act provides for two types of fees, namely:
  - a. A request fee, which is a form of administration fee to be paid by all requesters except personal requesters, before the request is considered and is not refundable; and
  - b. An access fee, which is paid by all requesters if a request for access is granted. This fee is inclusive of costs involved by the private body in obtaining and preparing a record for delivery to the requester.
- 9.1.2. When the request is received by the Information Officer, such officer shall by notice require the requester, other than a personal requester, to pay the prescribed request fee, before further processing of the request (section 54(1)).
- 9.1.3. If the search for the record has been made and the preparation of the record for disclosure, including arrangement to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulations for this purpose, the Information Officer shall notify the requester to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion of the access fee which would be payable if the request is granted.

- 9.1.4. The Information Officer shall withhold a record until the requester has paid the fees as indicated below.
- 9.1.5. A requester whose request for access to a record has been granted, must pay an access fee that is calculated to include, where applicable, the request fee, the process fee for reproduction and for search and preparation, and for any time reasonably required more than the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure including making arrangements to make it available in the request form.
- 9.1.6. If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, then the Information Officer concerned must repay the deposit to the requester.

10. Refusal of access to records

A private body such as Cred-it-data is entitled to refuse a request for information.

- 10.1. The main grounds for Cred-it-data to refuse a request for information relates to the:
  - a. mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person or a deceased person (section 63) or a juristic person, as included in the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013, which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural or juristic person.
  - b. mandatory protection of personal information and for disclosure of any personal information to, in addition to any other legislative, regulatory, or contractual agreements, comply with the provisions of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013.
  - c. mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party (section 64) if the record contains:
    - i. trade secrets of the third party.
    - ii. financial, commercial, scientific, or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial

- interests of that third party.
  - iii. information disclosed in confidence by a third party to Cred-it-data if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition.
  - d. mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties (section 65) if it is protected in terms of any agreement.
  - e. mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property (section 66).
  - f. mandatory protection of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings (section 67).
- 10.1.2. The commercial activities (section 68) of a private body, such as Cred-it-data, which may include:
- a. trade secrets of Cred-it-data.
  - b. financial, commercial, scientific, or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of Cred-it-data.
  - c. information which, if disclosed could put Cred-it-data at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition.
  - d. a computer program which is owned by Cred-it-data, and which is protected by copyright.
  - e. the research information (section 69) of Cred-it-data or a third party, if its disclosure would disclose the identity of Cred-it-data, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage.
- 10.1.3. Requests for information that are clearly frivolous or vexatious, or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources shall be refused.
- 10.1.4. All requests for information will be assessed on their own merits and in accordance with the applicable legal principles and legislation.
- 10.1.5. If a requested record cannot be found or if the record does not exist, the Information Officer shall, by way of an affidavit or affirmation, notify the requester that it is not possible to give access to the requested record. Such a notice will be regarded as a decision to refuse a request for access to the record concerned for the purpose of the Act. If the record should later be found, the requester shall be given access to the record in the manner stipulated by the requester in the prescribed form, unless the Information Officer refuses access to such record.

11. What can you do when Cred-it-data refuses a request?

11.1 Internal Remedies

Cred-it-data does not have internal appeal procedures. The decision made by the Information Officer is final. Requesters will have to exercise such external remedies at their disposal if the request for information is refused, and the requestor is not satisfied with the answer supplied by the Information Officer.

11.2 External Remedies

11.2.1 A requestor that is dissatisfied with the Information Officer's refusal to disclose information, may within 30 (thirty) days of notification of the decision, apply to a Court for relief.

11.2.2 A third party dissatisfied with the Information Officer's decision to grant a request for information, may within 30 (thirty) days of notification of the decision, apply to a Court for relief.

For purposes of the Act, the Courts that have jurisdiction over these applications are the Constitutional Court, the High Court or another court of similar status and a Magistrate's Court designated by the Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development, and which is presided over by a designated Magistrate.

12. Prerequisites to access records held by us.

12.1 Records held by Cred-it-data may be accessed by requests only once the prerequisite requirements for access have been met.

12.2 A requester is any person making a request for access to a record of Cred-it-data. There are two types of requesters:

- a. Personal Requester
  - i. A personal requester is a requester who is seeking access to a record containing personal information about the requester.
  - ii. Cred-it-data will voluntarily provide the requested information or give access to any record with regard to the requester's personal information. The prescribed fee for reproduction of the information requested will be charged.

b. Other Requester

- i. This requester (other than a personal requester) is entitled to request access to information on third parties.
- ii. In considering such a request, Cred-it-data will adhere to the provisions of the Act. Section 71 requires that the Information Officer take all reasonable steps to inform a third party to whom the requested record relates of the request, informing him/her that he/she may make a written or oral representation to the Information Officer why the request should be refused or, where required, give written consent for the disclosure of the Information.

Cred-it-data is not obliged to voluntarily grant access to such records. The requester must fulfil the prerequisite requirements, in accordance with the requirements of the Act and as stipulated in Chapter 5; Part 3, including the payment of a request and access fee.

13. How long does the process take?

- 13.1. Cred-it-data will, within 30 (thirty) days of receipt of the request, decide whether to grant or decline the request and give notice with reasons (if required) to that effect.
- a. The 30 (thirty) day period within which Cred-it-data has to decide whether to grant or refuse the request, may be extended for a further period of not more than (30) thirty days if the request is for a large number of information, or the request requires a search for information held at another office of Cred-it-data and the information cannot reasonably be obtained within the original 30 (thirty) day period.
  - b. Cred-it-data will notify the requester in writing should an extension be sought.

14. Protection of Personal Information that is Processed by Cred-it-data (PoPIA)

- 14.1 Protection of Personal Information Act no. 4 of 2013 provides that data subjects have the right to know what personal information Cred-it-data has about them, what it is used for, recipients or categories of recipients, whether it is transferred overseas. These are set out in Appendix \(PoPIA Records\) contained herein.
- 14.2 If you are a data subject, you have the right to:
- Access personal information, use \(Form 1, 16.1\)
  - Object to the use of your Personal information \(Form 2, 16.2\)
  - To request a deletion / correction of your records \(Form 3, 16.3\)
- 14.3 You also have a right to know what security measures we have in place at Cred-it-data.
- 14.4 Chapter 3 of PoPIA provides for the minimum Conditions for Lawful Processing of Personal Information by a Responsible Party. These conditions may not be derogated from unless specific exclusions apply as outlined in PoPIA.
- 14.5 Cred-it-data needs Personal Information relating to both individual and juristic persons to carry out its business and organisational functions. The way this information is Processed and the purpose for which it is Processed is determined by Cred-it-data. Cred-it-data is accordingly a Responsible Party for the purposes of POPIA and will ensure that the Personal Information of a Data Subject:
- 14.5.1 is processed lawfully, fairly, and transparently. This includes the provision of appropriate information to Data Subjects when their data is collected by Cred-it-data, in the form of privacy or data collection notices. Cred-it-data must also have a legal basis (for example, consent) to process Personal Information.

- 14.5.2 is processed only for the purposes for which it was collected.
- 14.5.3 will not be processed for a secondary purpose unless that processing is compatible with the original purpose.
- 14.5.4 is adequate, relevant and not excessive for the purposes for which it was collected.
- 14.5.5 is accurate and kept up to date.
- 14.5.6 will not be kept for longer than necessary.
- 14.5.7 is processed in accordance with integrity and confidentiality principles; this includes physical and organisational measures to ensure that Personal Information, in both physical and electronic form, are subject to an appropriate level of security when stored, used and communicated by Cred-it-data, in order to protect against access and acquisition by unauthorised persons and accidental loss, destruction or damage.
- 14.5.8 is processed in accordance with the rights of Data Subjects, where applicable. Data Subjects have the right to:
  - (a) be notified that their Personal Information is being collected by Cred-it-data. The Data Subject also has the right to be notified in the event of a data breach.
  - (b) know whether Cred-it-data holds Personal Information about them, and to access that information. Any request for information must be handled in accordance with the provisions of this Manual.
  - (c) request the correction or deletion of inaccurate, irrelevant, excessive, out of date, incomplete, misleading, or unlawfully obtained personal information.
  - (d) object to Cred-it-data's use of their Personal Information and request the deletion of such Personal Information (deletion would be subject to Cred-it-data's record keeping requirements);
  - (e) object to the processing of Personal Information for purposes of direct marketing by means of unsolicited electronic communications; and

- (f) complain to the Information Regulator regarding an alleged infringement of any of the rights protected under POPI and to institute civil proceedings regarding the alleged non-compliance with the protection of his/her or its personal information.

15. Appendixes

15.1 Fees

Where Cred-it-data has voluntarily provided the Minister with a list of categories of records that will automatically be made available to any person requesting access thereto, the only charge that may be levied for obtaining such records, will be a fee for reproduction of the record in question.

Request Fees

Where a requester submits a request for access to information held by an institution on a person other than the requester himself/herself, a request fee in the amount of R50,00 is payable up-front before the institution will further process the request received.
